Day of Recollection: Unless you Become a Child Spirituality of the Liturgy

The Abbey of the Hills Inn and Retreat Center will be offering a Day of Recollection.

The child within is present at Sunday Mass and the child is embraced. The child is a physical embodiment of the exact opposite of greatness. Whatever the worldly measure of greatness has been, the child is not great. The child is small. The child is powerless; turning away from the power-games we adults play. When we connect with the child within and in-communion with the child – we are one with God. It is in the Church's liturgy that God embraces us and we in-turn know the Source of who we are.

Begins: 10:00 a.m.

Ends: 3:00 p.m.

*Lunch is provided
